

COMFORT in the SCRIPTURES: An Introductory Guide to Personal Bible Study and the Development of Discernment is an excellent resource for the unchurched, new Christian converts, teenagers, millennials/young adults and anyone wanting to take their study of the Bible to another level.

The title is based on Romans 15:4, “For whatsoever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.” The book encourages readers to follow the instruction given in 2 Timothy 2:15, “Study to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth,” without hesitation or reservations.
